

Exeter City Korfball Club Welfare Policy

Exeter City Korfball Club takes the welfare of our members seriously and aims to provide all members with a positive and safe experience of korfball and team sport.

To ensure the safety and wellbeing of its members, Exeter City Korfball Club requires all of its members to sign and adhere to the Members Code of Conduct Policy.

In addition, the following policies have been published by Exeter Korfball Club to safeguard its members:

- Health and Safety Policy
- Equality and Diversity Policy
- Officials and Volunteers Code of Conduct Policy
- Safeguarding Policy

The following documents are maintained by Exeter City Korfball Club to ensure the welfare of its members:

- annual risk assessments - completed at the start of each season to ensure that the club's training and match facilities are safe and suitable for use
- accident report book – completed by first aiders or the session coach in the event of an incident

Club Liability Insurance

Exeter City Korfball Club is insured through its membership with the England Korfball Association. This insurance covered is renewed annually. The club is responsible for ensuring that any incidents that could lead to a claim are reported to the company underwriting the policy at the earliest opportunity.
